"The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar" (Jeremiah 32:1). "For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem" (verse 2).

"In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons" (Jeremiah 52:29).

END OF JUDAHITE KINGDOM

"In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up" and Zedekiah was taken prisoner (Jeremiah 39:2; 52:8-14).

In "the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar…Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard...burnt the house of Yahweh..and all the houses of Jerusalem, and....brake down the walls of (the city)" (2 Kings 25:8,9,10).

In "the nineteenth year…(Nebuchadnezzar) laid (the) temple desolate...(which remained) in...obscurity for fifty years" (Josephus: Apion I, 21).

"And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten" (Ezekiel 33:21).

Removal of remaining Judahites

"Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the (Babylonian) guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and (others left)...in the city (to)...Babylon. But (he)...left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen" (Jeremiah 52:15,16).

Then "Nebuchadnezzar...made Gedaliah...ruler" (2 Kings 25:22), he being assisted by a number of Chaldee administrators, over all those "not carried away" (Jeremiah 40:7). These were soon after joined not only by remnants of the Judahite army but also by many citizens who had previously fled to various countries (ch.40:11,12).

However "it came to pass in the seventh month, that (one) Ishmael...of the seed royal...(killed) Gedaliah...and the (Judahites) and the Chaldee (contingent) that were with him.... And all the people (wanted to go)...to Egypt: for they were afraid of (Nebuchadnezzar)" (2 Kings 25:25,26).

But the order of Jeremiah was that all should remain in Judah (Jeremiah 42:15-22). Rejecting his authority, "Johanan (one of) the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned...and (those) Nebuzaradan...had left with Gedaliah...and Jeremiah the prophet, and (his assistant) Baruch...into...Egypt" (ch.43:5-7).

Ignoring Jeremiah's further warnings (ch.43:8-13; 44:11-16,26,27), the Judahite remnant remained in Egypt, and were killed or taken captive when Egypt was invaded some 3 years later, there eventually being only "a small number that escape(d) the sword (and) return(ed) out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah" (ch.44:28).
