	August	Elul	When “all (of Joshua's) generation were (dead)...there arose another generation after them, which...did evil in the sight of Yahweh... And he sold them into the hands of their enemies” (Judges 2:10,11,14). “Nevertheless Yahweh raised up judges....and delivered (Israel) out of the hand of their enemies all the days of (each) judge: (but in each case)...when the judge was dead (the Israelites)...corrupted themselves” and “turned quickly out of the way...of Yahweh” (verses 16-19). Following Joshua, various judges were “raised up” by Yahweh (Judges 2:16). The jurisdiction of each of the 16 judges can be also identified relative to the geographical regions of the various nations who oppressed Israel, with some judges' periods overlapping. Considering 2 of the 6 oppressing nations, chapter 3:14 mentions that Ehud of the mid-southern Benjamin province stood up against neighbouring Moab in the south east, and chapter 11:14 refers to the geographically separate region of Philistia to the west, whom Samson fought against, he being of the western province of Dan.					ASHUR-NERARI II
