	June	Tammuz	Start of the period of 480 years "after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt" to when Solomon "began to build the house of Yahweh" (1 Kings 6:1).	The Israelites had "dwelt in Egypt...four hundred and thirty years. And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the self same day (as Jacob had entered Egypt) it came to pass, that all the hosts of Yahweh went out from the land of Egypt" (Exodus 12:40,41), such occurring some 14 months prior to the spying out of the land of Canaan (cf. Numbers 10:11,12; 13:2,3). At that time one of the spies, being Caleb, was noted as being "forty years old" (13:6; Joshua 14:7).

	November	Chislev	Change of New Year Although the Israelites continued to recognise an autumn "end of the year" like the Egyptians (Exodus 23:16), it was required of the nation after the Exodus that instead of civil years beginning in the autumn month of Ethanim (later Tishri), "the beginning of months" would be the spring month of "Abib" (Exodus 12:2; 13:4) [equivalent to the Assyrian 1st month Nisannu, from which came the later Judean month Nisan].
